

AI Shorta's Greatest Players - Number 50: Tassyer Abdulhussein

After spending the 2000-01 season at Al Karkh and the 2001-02 season at Duhok, Tassyer Abdulhussein, born on 1 July 1984, joined AI Shorta for the 2002-03 season. The winger scored on his debut, netting in the seventh minute of AI Shorta's opening game in the 2002 Umm Al Ma'arak Cup as the Harps beat Al Najaf 2-0, and he also started the final as AI Shorta beat Al Talaba to claim the cup for the third time in a row.

He then helped AI Shorta win the 2002 Al Quds International Championship, scoring in a 3-0 win over Al Baqa'a in the group stage. He scored four goals in the league that season against Duhok, Al Nasiriya, Zakho and Al Naft as the Harps won their third title of the Premier League era, and also scored in an 8-1 win over Al Diwaniya in the Iraqi FA Cup as AI Shorta finished as runners-up.

Tassyer slowly became more and more important in AI Shorta's side and was one of their best players in the 2004 Algomhuria International Cup as the Police claimed fourth place, also scoring in the 2004 AFC Champions League in an unlucky 3-2 defeat to Al Sharjah. In the 2003-04 season, he scored in the first leg of the playoff game with Al Quwa Al Jawiya which AI Shorta ended up winning 4-3 on aggregate to qualify for the 2005 AFC Champions League, and the following season saw him score against Naft Al Junoob and Al Kut while he netted against Al Jaish and Karbalaa in the 2006-07 campaign.

His best season for AI Shorta came in 2007-08 though as he was AI Shorta's top scorer that season, hitting 12 goals including strikes against both Al Zawraa (twice) and Al Quwa Al Jawiya, two of the Harps' biggest rivals. He signed for Al Amana (now known as Amanat Baghdad) in 2008, helping them to a fourth place finish before moving on to play for Masafi Al Wasat and Al Sinaah and then becoming an assistant coach at Al Diwaniya.

© Copyright 2010-2016

You are free to copy texts, whether in whole or part, and pictures from this website provided that proper acknowledgement is given to www.alshorta.webs.com.

webs

Create your own free website today